

Jacqueline Chittock (née Hayter)

BMus(Hons) LRAM PGDip – Woodwind Teacher

I have been a peripatetic woodwind teacher and freelance orchestral bassoonist, since leaving the Royal College of Music as a postgraduate in 2004. I have performed worldwide with some of the world's most prestigious orchestras. I have also recorded regularly with ensembles, orchestras and notable musicians. I play all the woodwind instruments to Grade 8 level and regularly teach Flute, Clarinet, Oboe, Recorder, Saxophone and Bassoon. As well as teaching I have been involved in many educational programmes including "Double Reed Day" at Guildhall School of Music, Bassoon recital and classes to all levels, Philharmonia Education Scheme, Music in Hospitals, RPO/ LPO Education Projects Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra Participate and Live Music Now! I have considerable experience coaching small and large scale ensembles.
